Celebrating the HERIT ADAPT journey: From pilot success to lasting impact

The HERIT ADAPT final event in Athens brought together partners, policymakers, and stakeholders to celebrate the project's achievements and reflect on its lasting impact.

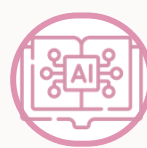

The event showcased how collaboration, innovation, and shared expertise can strengthen climate resilience while promoting sustainable tourism and protecting cultural heritage. Building on the success of its pilot experiences, HERIT ADAPT is paving the way for solutions that can be replicated and adapted across regions in Europe and beyond.

How can the HERIT ADAPT Sustainable Tourism Model be transferred across regions?

The HERIT ADAPT Transferability Plan provides a practical framework to help regions replicate and adapt the Sustainable Tourism Model and its validated solutions, enabling policymakers and destination managers to scale sustainable tourism for cultural heritage.

Building on lessons learnt from the pilot actions, it supports the transfer of 4 innovative use cases:

- Digital twin & 3D modelling
- XR/AR for Enhanced Visibility
- AI-enabled Storytelling
- Big Data & IoT Integration
